

Save the Date

Fukuoka 2010 Active Aging Conference and Study Tour

October 29 – November 2, 2010

Join Us! In Fukuoka, Japan

Study Tour Focus

Learn about Japanese innovations in senior services and products given the explosive growth of the elderly population and the shortage of long-term care workers

- Research and education for a healthy life diet
- New Gerontechnologies: robots, senior vehicle
- Housing for older adults
- Multi-functional group home for dementia residents
- Assisted devices for older adults
- Universal transportation design
- Age-friendly shopping area design

Website

For detailed information and online registration, please visit this website after July 15, 2010:
http://www.aabc.jp/en/acap/acap_2010_fukuoka.html

About the Conference and Study Tour

Conference Title: “Towards Age-Friendly Communities”

Learn why Fukuoka is planning to improve the capacity of its communities and neighborhoods regarding eldercare

- October 29-31, 2010 –Conference
- November 1-2, 2010 – Study Tour

Maximum for study tour: 20 participants (first come, first served)

Major Organizers: Active Aging Consortium in Asia/Pacific, Fukuoka City Government, and the Asian Aging Business Center, Fukuoka Japan

Hawaii Co-Sponsors: Office of Public Health Studies, University of Hawaii at Manoa
Kupuna Education Center - Kapiolani Community College

Please Email to be on the mail-list and to indicate your interest for further information regarding registration, cost, optional tours, orientation, etc.

- Cullen Hayashida, (808) 734-9469, cullen@hawaii.edu
- Harumi Karel, (808) 737-5296, kharumi@hawaii.edu

Participants should plan on spending about : $1,500 (conference registration, study tour, hotel for 6 nights and some meals) plus about $1000 for roundtrip airfare from Hawaii. More details are forthcoming.